Brothers & Henderson, P.S. – Proudly Providing Services Since 1984

Joshua Brothers

Joshua Brothers is an experienced advocate and attorney in disability and elder law, and long-time leader at Brothers & Henderson, P.S. A partner at the firm for nearly a decade, his practice focuses on litigation and settlement planning; the development, implementation and administration of special needs trusts and other types of trusts; estate planning; guardianship; benefits advocacy; benefits litigation; and probate.

With a strong commitment to the disability and senior communities, Brothers actively serves as a leader and advocate for numerous community organizations, including his time as president of the Board of Directors for the Arc of King County and as the CLE co-chair for the King County Bar Association Guardianship and Elder Law Section. Brothers has also held positions on the CLE Committee for the Washington State Association for Justice, the Board of Directors for the Arc of Washington State, the Professional Advisory Board for the Autism Society of Washington, and the Tyee Sports Council.

Mr. Brothers, named as a Rising Star by Washington Law & Politics for 2009 and 2010, is a frequent presenter at continuing legal education seminars, parent group meetings and other conferences, and symposiums on issues related to his areas of practice.

He was admitted to practice in the State of Washington in 2004, the United States Federal District Court in 2004, and the State of Oregon in 2017. Brothers received his Juris Doctor from the University of San Diego in 2004 and his bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Washington in 2000. Brothers is a member of the Washington State Bar Association, King County Bar Association, the Academy of Special Needs Planners, the Washington State and American Associations for Justice, the Arc of Washington State and King County, and the Brain Injury Alliance of Washington.

When he's not practicing law, Brothers enjoys spending time with his wife, young daughter, and three dogs. He is an avid surfer and skier. Prior to law school, Brothers was one of 60 cyclists in the 1999 Journey of Hope bicycle ride from San Francisco to Washington, D.C., raising money and awareness for people with disabilities.
